

Why Invest in RPAC?

Whether you are a broker-owner or a part-time agent, politics directly impacts your profitability. Here in Georgia, RPAC supports REALTOR® champions who make property rights and homeownership a priority. Through these relationships and the work of our GAR Advocacy Team, Georgia has seen numerous legislative victories:

- In 2020, GAR Advocacy played a key role in the process to have real estate deemed critical infrastructure and REALTORS® listed as essential workers during the COVID-19 Pandemic.
- Defeated legislation that would have required all REALTORS® who sold property via competitive bid, sealed bid or silent bid, to be licensed as an auctioneer in Georgia.
- Passed legislation to allow independent contractors to pool together for insurance purposes in Georgia.
- Blocked a 6% state sales tax on real estate commissions.
- Protected water rights for Georgia property owners by preserving our riparian rights system.
- Prevented local governments from registering residential rental property.

Contributions to RPAC are not deductible for federal income tax purposes. GARPAC contributions are voluntary and are used for political purposes. The Georgia Association of REALTORS® and its local associations will not favor or disadvantage any member because of the amount contributed, and you may refuse to contribute without reprisal. 70% of each contribution is split between Georgia RPAC to support state and local political candidates and Georgia RIAC for issues mobilization and education. 30% is sent to National RPAC to support federal candidates and is charged against your limits under 52 U.S.C. 30116.
